UNDERSTOOD.ORG: TURN A LUGGAGE TAG INTO A BACKPACK CHECKLIST

Getting your child's backpack organized is a feat worth celebrating. But making sure kids put in everything they need for the trip to school and back can take some work. A luggage tag checklist is an easy way to help your child keep track, without it being obvious to other kids. All you have to do is buy an inexpensive clear luggage tag to attach to the backpack's zipper pull. Take out the address label and replace it with this printable checklist.

AUTISM BC

AutismBC Talks: Personal Planning & Representation Agreements with Nidus

"Planning for the future can feel overwhelming, but having the right information can help you make informed decisions for yourself and the people you care about.

Your choice. Your plan. Your life. This free live webinar, in collaboration with Nidus, offers a robust overview of personal planning and Representation Agreements. Nidus staff will review the usefulness of personal planning and discuss ways it can benefit you and your loved ones.

The 60-minute presentation and 30-minute Q&A will address frequently asked questions, including:

- What is personal planning and how is it different from estate planning?
- What if I have a Will and an Enduring Power of Attorney—am I covered?
- What is a Representation Agreement and why are there different types?
- What if I can't make any of these documents?
- What will happen to me in an emergency if I can't speak for myself?
- What if I don't have family nearby?
- Why should I register my legal documents?

Questions may be submitted in advance by emailing programs@autismbc.ca. Due to time constraints, only selected questions will be answered during the session.

When/where: Sept. 25 from 12-1:30 PM PT live via Zoom"
