With 1 in 5 people dyslexic, the BIG PICTURE: RETHINKING DYSLEXIA - a film that demystifies dyslexia- is being hailed around the world as a must see for everyone. The film provides personal and uplifting accounts of the dyslexic experience from children, experts and Iconic leaders, such as Sir Richard Branson, and financier Charles Schwab. Drs. Sally and Bennet Shaywitz, co-founders of the Yale Center for Dyslexia & Creativity, share insights gleaned from their decades long research into this perplexing disability.
