

SUPPORTING SUCCESS FOR INDIVIDUALS WITH FASD

Thursday, September 9th, 2021, 10:00am to 12:30pm
Facilitated by Kee Warner and Marcel Gagnon

Kee Warner is the Executive Director for Whitecrow Village FASD Society. Whitecrow is a non-profit organization committed to educating communities and professionals about FASD and to improving the lives of those affected by this prominent neurodevelopmental disability. Marcel Gagnon is an award-winning singer-songwriter from the Lheidli T'enneh First Nation who has worked for two decades with men in the provincial and federal corrections system. Gagnon received an Honourary Doctorate of Laws degree from UNBC in Prince George on June 25th, 2021. Marcel will speak about his struggles and accomplishments growing up with FASD. There will be time for questions and answers. Marcel will close with a song.

Open to Foster Parents , Kinship Caregivers, Out of Care Options, Adoptive Parents and Social Workers

To Register : <https://conta.cc/3y6kH6>

Presented in partnership by
FPSS Foster Parent Support Services Society And Interior Community Services

